ABOUT VENUE

PRAGUE, CZECH REPUBLIC

Prague, Czech Praha city, capital of the Czech Republic placed at the heart of Europe. It is one of the continent's best cities and the major Czech economic and traditional centres. Praga is the capital and biggest city in the Czech Republic,the historic capital of Bohemia, Situated on the Vltava river. Prague is an energetic, busy city slightly west of the center of the country, with around 1.3 million residents. Prague is a traditional hot spot and conducts many international events. It is a popular place for distant visitors. It seems also a worthy place for foreigners to settle with 14% of Prague's citizens are foreign .Prague has experienced centuries of diverse cultural, social and economic development,which is reflected in its design.Among the most exciting spectators to this histrionic transformation are technical monuments noting changes in the everyday life of our ancestors in comparison with the current day. Prague is home to a number of attention-grabbing technical buildings and other structures.

Prague is well-known for full of life castles, Baroque and Gothic cathedrals, dreamy bridges, nightlife spots, and lively arts scene. It's known for its centuries of olden times and cultural heritage. The bohemian allure and fairytale features of Prague make it a perfect destination for culture vultures who want to submerge themselves in history, art, music, and architecture. Spend some time traveling Old Town Square before heading over to the Astronomical Clock as it accomplishes a mechinical promenade on the hour. Where the medieval heart of Europe can remain in its cobblestone streets. Prague is the equal of Paris in terms of glory. Its history goes back as a golden age. The most important cultural institutions in Prague are the National Gallery with its extensive art collections spread throughout the city and the National Museum presenting historical and natural history shows. Prague's other decent museums are definitely worth a visit are the Jewish Museum with the world's largest collection of Judaic art, Rudolfinum which hosts contemporary art temporary exhibitions, and House of the Black Madonna is one of the rare Modern buildings in Europe, with shows of Czech Cubism. There are nearly 40 different theatres in Prague. Surrounded by the National Theatre, the Estates Theatre, State Opera, and National Marionette Theatre are all gorgeous buildings accommodating a wealth of performances, mostly concerts, opera and ballets.The Festival light motive is to present the cultural tradition of different countries and to provide an opportunity for the members of groups to get together, to create friendships and culture presentation through dance and music.
