About Singapore

Singapore, an island nation in Southeast Asia lies one degree (137 kilometres (85 mi)) north of the equator, at the southern tip of the Malay Peninsula, with Indonesia's Riau Islands toward the south and Malaysia toward the north. The city features mainly incorporate Gardens by the Bay, Merlion Park, Singapore Flyer, Universal Studios Singapore, Buddha Tooth Relic Temple, Masjid Sultan, Singapore Zoo and Underwater World. Singapore is both an island and a country, but perhaps its best description is that of city-state. Like the great city-states of the past. it offers civilization and order in the highest degree. Singapore is also a multicultural city, and close to one-quarter of its population are expatriates or foreign workers from all over the world. Known for its desire to become the technology hub of Asia. Singapore is the most wired country in the region. It can be considered as a suitable medium for the relocation of valuable knowledge about research and novel advancements worldwide. The conferences taking part here would promote a variety of scientific ideas among contenders belonging to diverse areas of science and technology.
