Subject: Ethical Med Tech - Conference Vetting System - Assessment outcome decision

To whom it may concern,

We refer to your submission dated related to the related to the 10th International Conference and Exhibition on Biologics and Biosimilars from 16/10/2017 to 17/10/2017 in San Francisco, United States (herewith referred to as the "Conference"). You have requested that we provide you with our decision as to whether or not the Conference is compliant with the Medtech Europe Code of Ethical Business Practice.
We are pleased to inform you that following our assessment we have determined that the Conference is: COMPLIANT subject to the following:

a. In rendering this decision, we have relied on the documents and information which have been provided to us. We have not independently verified the accuracy of that information or of those documents nor have we determined whether they are up-to-date.
b. The overall conference scientific programme has been reviewed, but not for content. Therefore, we have not made a determination with regard to its scientific value.
c. This decision does not take into account national or local laws, regulations or professional or company codes that may impose more stringent requirements.
d. The Medtech Europe Code of Ethical Business Practice requires Medtech Europe members and members of national associations to notify in writing each sponsored Healthcare Professional's hospital administration, superior or locally designated competent authority with a full description of the purpose and scope of all sponsorship provided. It is up to each Medtech Europe member and national association member to comply with this transparency requirement.

This decision will be posted on www.ethicalmedtech.eu.

Sincerely,
Christine SAINVIL
