ABOUT VENUE

Prague may be a political, cultural and economic center of central Europe complete with a rich history. Prague is home to about 1.3 million people, while its metropolitan area is estimated to own a population of two.7 million. The town features a temperate oceanic climate, with relatively warm summers and chilly winters. Founded during the Romanesque and flourishing by the Gothic, Renaissance and Baroque eras, Prague was the capital of the dominion of Bohemia and also the main residence of several Holy Roman Emperors. Although steeped within the history of civilization, Prague is additionally an especially modern city, with a number of the world's top restaurants, vibrant night spots, and a lot of local color and charm. You will want to remain forever once you see it, and it's one in all the places you may dream about for the remainder of your life.

Prague is mostly famous for being the capital of Czech Republic, therefore being called the Heart of Europe due to Czech Republic being the heart of Europe. Architecture is very well-preserved in the entire Czech Republic so tourists mostly think those beautiful buildings are only in our capital city. The city was founded during the Romanesque era and flourished during the Gothic and Renaissance periods, it was also the seat of two Holy Roman Emperors and therefore the capital of the Holy Roman Empire. Later Prague became an important city to the Hapsburg Monarchy and its Astros-Hungarian Empire, after World War I it became the capital of Czechoslovakia. The city of Prague is the dream destination of every traveler and is one of the most popular holiday destinations around the world. The city offers something for everyone and each one of us will surely find something to love there. Few cities can claim to have such a picturesque river as the Vltava. In Prague alone, it's spanned by over thirty bridges and footbridges, its water gently laps the edges of ten islands, and each day dozens of steamers, rowboats and pedal boats glide through its waters. It's the soul of the city, and is perfectly complemented by the medieval Charles Bridge with its Baroque statues. Musically Prague can satisfy both classical music listeners and as fans of rock, pop and every other genre. While you can get your fill of classical music in the Rudolfinum, the Municipal House or one of the churches in Prague, no fan of dance music should miss a visit to Prague's renowned music clubs. Prague's historic gardens and parks are truly some of Prague's greatest treasures. There are over two hundred - the oldest of them was founded in the middle Ages, and more often than not, they offer breathtaking views of the city. Prague offers countless activities for families with children. Take a steamship from the city center to the Prague Zoo, rightly considered to be one of the most beautiful zoos in the world. Prague's views are breathtaking 365 days a year. Although the Czech capital is nicknamed "the city of a hundred spires", in fact it is decorated with nearly a thousand towers and spires.
