WELCOME ADDRESS

Dear Attendees,

The Childhood Obesity 2025 Organizing Committee is absolutely delighted to welcome you to the 18th International Conference on Childhood Obesity & Nutrition which will be held in Rome, Italy on November 03-04, 2025, where we will be shining a spotlight on "Combating Food Insecurity and Its Effect on Child Health".

We are looking forward to providing you with a superb environment in which to present, discuss and advance your Obesity research. The world class scientific programme will consolidate existing knowledge while at the same time increase your awareness of leading edge and forward looking advances in the field.

The congress is to be held in Rome is located in the central portion of the Italian peninsula, on the Tiber River about 15 miles (24 km) inland from the Tyrrhenian Sea. Rome is one of our most popular cities. Modern Rome has 280 fountains and more than 900 churches. Nearly 700,000 euros worth of coins are tossed into Rome's Trevi Fountain each year. The proceeds are donated to Caritas to help those in need. The Romans had built a road network of 53,000 miles by the early fourth century

We look forward to seeing/welcoming you in 2025 for an experience of a lifetime.

With Regards
Childhood Obesity 2025

ABOUT ROME

Rome, the capital city of Italy, is one of the most historically rich and culturally significant cities in the world. Often referred to as the “Eternal City,” Rome has a history that spans more than 2,500 years. It was the heart of the Roman Empire, which at its peak ruled much of Europe, North Africa, and the Middle East. Today, the ruins of ancient Rome—including the Colosseum, the Roman Forum, and the Pantheon—stand as powerful reminders of its past glory.In addition to its ancient history, Rome is also a vibrant modern city known for its art, architecture, and cuisine. It has been a center of Renaissance and Baroque art, with artists like Michelangelo and Raphael leaving their mark on the city’s churches, fountains, and museums. The Vatican City, an independent city-state within Rome, is the headquarters of the Roman Catholic Church and home to the magnificent St. Peter’s Basilica and the Sistine Chapel.Rome’s streets are a lively mix of old and new. Narrow cobbled lanes open up to grand piazzas, while modern shops and cafes sit next to centuries-old buildings. Romans are known for their love of food and socializing, and the city offers an endless variety of traditional Italian dishes, from pasta carbonara to Roman-style pizza. The café culture is strong, and evenings are often spent enjoying an espresso or glass of wine in the open air.Tourism plays a major role in Rome’s economy, with millions of people visiting each year to explore its historical sites and experience its unique atmosphere. Despite the crowds, the city maintains a sense of timeless charm and beauty. Whether you’re admiring ancient ruins, throwing a coin into the Trevi Fountain, or simply strolling along the Tiber River, Rome offers a blend of past and present that few other cities can match.
