INVITATION

Dear Attendees,

We are delighted to announce the 14th Annual Congress on Dental Medicine and Orthodontics, scheduled to be held on February 02–03, 2026, in Paris, France, organized by ConferenceSeries LLC with the generous support and collaboration of esteemed academicians, researchers, and editorial board members.

This prestigious event will focus on the theme, "Innovations and Excellence in Dental Care: Shaping Smiles, Transforming Lives", bringing together a global community of dental professionals to share groundbreaking research, clinical expertise, and technological advancements.

Who Should Attend:

Dentists, orthodontists, dental surgeons, oral health specialists, prosthodontists, dental technicians, researchers, professors, students, business delegates, exhibitors, and members of dental associations and universities from around the world.

Why Attend:

Network with global experts and industry leaders in dental medicine and orthodontics.

Gain insights into the latest research, technologies, and treatment techniques.

Participate in keynote sessions, interactive workshops, and panel discussions.

Present your research through oral talks, posters, and E-posters—accepted works will be published in our International Journal.

Explore opportunities for academic collaboration, business networking, and professional growth. We look forward to welcoming you to Paris for an enriching and inspiring experience.

Sincerely,
Organizing Committee

ABOUT VENUE

CITY ATTRACTIONS

Paris, the elegant and enchanting capital of France, is widely regarded as one of the most fascinating cities in Europe and the world. Known for its timeless charm, Paris offers a captivating blend of history, art, fashion, and culture, making it the perfect backdrop for an international scientific gathering.

Renowned for its iconic landmarks, such as the Eiffel Tower, the Louvre Museum, and the Champs-Élysées, Paris draws millions of visitors each year. The city's mild and moderately rainy climate makes it an all-year-round destination. Paris is a hub of creativity and innovation, home to world-famous fashion houses like Dior and Chanel, as well as global leaders in beauty and luxury brands including L'Oréal.

Beyond its aesthetic allure, Paris is also a thriving center for academic and professional exchange, offering exceptional infrastructure for international conferences. Delegates will enjoy the unique opportunity to blend professional learning with cultural exploration, from charming cafés and exquisite cuisine to world-class art and architectural marvels.

In February 2026, join us in Paris to be part of an inspiring event while experiencing the elegance, romance, and vibrance of one of the most iconic cities on earth.
