The city has got four distinct seasons. The surrounding urban areas in the city are fully developed with industrial and commercial sectors. It is popular for its technical innovations, research ideas and ranks as global leading city with good economic background despite of less number of inhabitants. World class education by eminent faculty where more number of international students are seen in ETH (Swiss Federal Institute of Technology Zurich) or Zurich University. Zurich is considered as Switzerland's economic centre and home to various international companies.

Zurich is an internationally renowned financial centre and it has consistently ranked in the top 10, 2nd most competitive in Europe after London. Quality of Life Survey ranked Zurich first on a list of the top 25 cities in the world to make a base within. Surveys during 2006 to 2008, reported that Zurich was the city which can provide the best quality of life for tourist across the Europe. The official language of Zurich is German, but the main spoken language is the local variant of the Alemannic Swiss German dialect. It is the city where people can experience with the best quality of life in the world as well as the richest city in Europe. Zurich's shopping mile has contributed largely to the city's status as an El Dorado for purchasers and is a top address for international fashion labels, jewellery and even watches. In seasonal, entertainment can be found not only in the clubs, but also in the open-air theatres and they are the places where visitors enjoy and relax during the day and noted as ideal places to and dance at night.

Glorious Food

There are many regional dishes in Switzerland. One example is Zurcher Geschnetzeltes, thin strips of veal with mushrooms in a cream sauce served with Rösti. Italian cuisine is popular in contemporary Switzerland, particularly pasta and pizza. Foods often associated with Switzerland include particular types of cheese and milk chocolate. Swiss cheeses, in particular Emmental cheese, Gruyère, Vacherin, and Appenzeller, are famous Swiss products. The most popular cheese dishes are fondue and raclette. Both these dishes were originally regional dishes, but were popularized by the Swiss Cheese Union to boost sales of cheese. Tarts and quiches are also traditional Swiss dishes. Tarts in particular are made with all sorts of toppings, from sweet apple to onion.

Rosti is a popular potato dish that is eaten all over Switzerland. It was originally a breakfast food, but this has been replaced by the muesli, which is commonly eaten for breakfast and in Switzerland goes by the name of "Birchermuesli". For breakfast and dinner many Swiss enjoy sliced bread with butter and jam. There is a wide variety of bread rolls available in Switzerland. Bread and cheese is a popular dish for dinner.

Stylish Shopping

Your holiday in Switzerland isn't complete until you go shopping. From Cheese and chocolates to watches, liquors, cuckoo clocks and embroidery work, there are plenty of indigenous souvenirs you can take back from the trip along with your beautiful memories. These articles that are unique to Switzerland are pretty much available in most of its big cities like Zurich, Zermatt, Geneva, Lausanne and Interlaken. Zurich has a great collection to quench your shopping thirst. Renowned for precious metals, Zurich has an eye captivating collection of gold, silver and platinum jewellery. The all-time famous Bahnhofstrasse features some of the well-known jewellery stores in Zurich. Visit the Altstadt, where there is a blend of both traditional & modern boutiques.
