WELCOME ADDRESS

Dear Attendees,

The Euro Diabetes 2025 Organizing Committee is absolutely delighted to welcome you to the 34th European Diabetes Congress which will be held in Rome, Italy on November 03-04, 2025, where we will be shining a spotlight on "One Step Ahead: Global Strategies for Diabetes Prevention and Control".

We are looking forward to providing you with a superb environment in which to present, discuss and advance your diabetes and clinical research. The world class scientific programme will consolidate existing knowledge while at the same time increase your awareness of leading edge and forward looking advances in the field.

The congress is to be held in one of the world's most important global cities which stands on the River Thames in southeast England, which is called as London. It exerts considerable influence on the arts, commerce, education, entertainment, fashion, finance, healthcare, media, professional services, research and development, tourism, and transportation. What better place to combine leading edge science with an unsurpassed personal experience.

We look forward to seeing/welcoming you in 2025 for an experience of a lifetime.

With Regards
Euro Diabetes 2025

ABOUT ROME

Rome, Italy, famously known as the Eternal City, is a destination like no other—a place where ancient history and contemporary life exist in a mesmerizing harmony. As the capital of Italy and one of the most historically significant cities in the world, Rome is a living museum with thousands of years of rich cultural heritage, architectural marvels, and timeless art. Walking through Rome is like stepping into a vast open-air gallery; every corner reveals layers of its storied past. From the majestic Colosseum, once the site of grand gladiatorial battles, to the Roman Forum where the foundations of Western civilization were debated and shaped, the city pulses with historical significance. The Pantheon, a stunning example of ancient Roman engineering, and the iconic Trevi Fountain, where visitors toss coins for a return trip, are just a few of the city's countless treasures.

Vatican City, the spiritual and administrative heart of the Roman Catholic Church, lies within Rome's boundaries. Home to St. Peter's Basilica, the Vatican Museums, and the awe-inspiring Sistine Chapel ceiling painted by Michelangelo, this enclave offers both spiritual reverence and artistic wonder. Beyond its ancient ruins and religious sites, Rome thrives with modern energy. The city boasts vibrant neighborhoods such as Trastevere, known for its charming cobbled streets, street performers, and authentic Roman trattorias, and the trendy Monti district, where boutiques and cafes are tucked among medieval buildings. Rome's culinary scene is a feast for the senses—think pasta carbonara, Roman-style pizza, and gelato enjoyed al fresco in bustling piazzas filled with laughter and music.Rome's appeal extends beyond its famous landmarks and cuisine; it is a hub of global diplomacy, academic excellence, and cultural exchange.
