Plan Your Trip

Rome, Italy's capital is a homonymous province.

Climate: April is a great time to visit Rome, Italy, when there's a refreshing chill in the air. At this time of the year, the average temperature starts off at 12°C and increases to 15°C toward the end of the month.

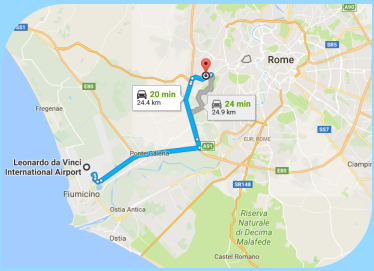

Easter at Vatican City, Rome

April 21st marks the founding of Rome, also known as Rome's birthday. The biggest and best celebrations are held on the weekend closest to the 21st and include musical concerts and parades. Various historical re-enactments are held at the Circus Maximus - the place where chariot races used to be held, whilst the Colosseum hosts firework displays and gladiatorial performances.
