WELCOME ADDRESS

Dear Attendees,

The Euro Vaccines 2024 Organizing Committee is absolutely delighted to welcome you to the 42nd Euro Global Summit and Expo on Vaccines & Vaccination which will be held in Madrid, Spain on October 10-11, 2024, where we will be shining a spotlight on "Advancing Vaccine Innovation: New Frontiers and Collaborations".

We are looking forward to providing you with a superb environment in which to present, discuss and advance your Vaccine & Vaccination research. The world class scientific programme will consolidate existing knowledge while at the same time increase your awareness of leading edge and forward looking advances in the field.

The congress is to be held in one of the world's most important global cities Madrid, it is a city so full of life and culture. It is the capital and largest city of Spain, as well as the capital of the autonomous community of the same name. Artistically the city holds its own against any in Europe, with the of the best art museums on the continent where renaissance masterworks and seminal 20th-century pieces are waiting to captivate you.

We look forward to seeing/welcoming you in 2024 for an experience of a lifetime.

With Regards
Euro Vaccines 2024

ABOUT MADRID

Madrid, the capital and largest city of Spain, is a vibrant and culturally rich metropolis that captivates visitors with its unique blend of history, art, cuisine, and modernity. Situated in the heart of the Iberian Peninsula, Madrid has a storied past that dates back to the Middle Ages, and it has evolved into a thriving cosmopolitan hub. The city's history is palpable as you wander through its streets. One of the most iconic landmarks is the Royal Palace, a grandiose structure that serves as the official residence of the Spanish monarch. Nearby, the Almudena Cathedral adds a touch of architectural splendor with its stunning neoclassical design. Madrid is also home to some of the world's most renowned museums, including the Prado Museum, housing an unparalleled collection of European art, and the Reina Sofia Museum, famous for its modern and contemporary art, including Picasso's iconic "Guernica." These institutions provide an enriching journey through the world of art and culture. Exploring Madrid's neighborhoods is a delightful experience in itself.

The historic center, known as "Madrid de los Austrias," boasts charming cobblestone streets, while the trendy Malasaña district is a hub for bohemian culture and nightlife. The lively Gran Vía is often compared to Broadway, lined with theaters, shops, and restaurants, offering endless entertainment options. One cannot discuss Madrid without mentioning its culinary scene. Spaniards take their food seriously, and Madrid is no exception. The city is renowned for its tapas culture, where you can hop from bar to bar, sampling a variety of small, flavorful dishes. Must-try dishes include "patatas bravas," "jamón ibérico," and "cocido madrileño." For a sweet treat, indulge in churros dipped in rich, thick hot chocolate. Madrid's parks and green spaces provide a welcome respite from the bustling city life. The Retiro Park, with its serene lake, sculptures, and gardens, is a favorite spot for both locals and tourists. The Casa de Campo, one of Europe's largest urban parks, offers hiking, biking, and even an amusement park.
