About Rome

Paris, often referred to as the "City of Light" (La Ville Lumière), is the capital and largest city of France. It is located in the northern-central part of the country and is one of the world's most famous and culturally significant cities. Paris has a rich history dating back to its founding by the Celts in the 3rd century BC. It became the capital of France in the 12th century and played a crucial role in various historical events, including the French Revolution. Paris is renowned for its iconic landmarks, including the Eiffel Tower, Notre-Dame Cathedral, the Louvre Museum (home to the Mona Lisa), the Arc de Triomphe, and the Palace of Versailles, among others.

The city has been a hub for art, culture, and intellectual pursuits for centuries. It's known for its world-class museums and galleries, such as the Louvre and the Musée d'Orsay, which house priceless works of art. Paris is synonymous with high fashion and is considered one of the fashion capitals of the world. It is home to numerous luxury brands and is famous for its fashion weeks.Paris is known for its diverse architectural styles. The cityscape is a mix of historic buildings, Haussmannian architecture, and modern designs.
