About the conference

We warmly welcome all attendees to the 13th World Gastro Summit, taking place on August 27–28, 2025, in Paris, France. Gastro Summit 2025 offers an outstanding platform for participants from diverse backgrounds to present their research, exchange ideas, and learn about the latest scientific advancements and innovations in gastroenterology and healthcare management. Our primary objective is to foster progress in this dynamic research field by promoting collaboration and knowledge-sharing. The summit also aims to bridge the gap between academic research and industry by providing opportunities for interaction among leading scientists, healthcare professionals, and business entrepreneurs in the field.

Theme: “Breaking Barriers in Gut Health: Technology, Therapy & Transformation”.

Why to attend the conference

The World Gastro Summit emphasizes the increasing adoption of integrative treatment approaches that demonstrate effective outcomes with fewer side effects compared to conventional Western therapies. This conference offers a unique platform for the convergence of Eastern and Western medical practices, fostering collaboration and knowledge exchange. It will bring together researchers, clinicians, educators, healthcare professionals, industry experts, students, and emerging scholars from around the world. The summit will also serve as an opportunity to present and discuss recent advancements in areas such as acupuncture and integrative healthcare, contributing to the broader development and acceptance of evidence-based interdisciplinary treatments in modern clinical practice.
