About Madrid

Madrid is located on the Manzanares river in the centre of Spain. As the capital city of Spain, seat of government, and residence of the Spanish monarch, Madrid is the political, economic and cultural centre of Spain. Madrid is the largest city of Spain. It is the third-largest city in the European Union. Voted one of the world's finest cities in which to live, the city of Madrid represents perfect harmony between efficiency and quality of life, at a price which is hard to beat anywhere else in the world. Madrid is considered the major financial centre of Southern Europe due to its economic output and market size. With 144 museums, almost 3.000 hours of sunshine per year, 59.000 hotel beds, 6 public and 7 private universities, more than 350 metro stations and almost 300 km of underground lines, and more than 5.000 restaurants - Madrid is a city to share and enjoy. According to Monocle magazine, Madrid is the 10th most livable city in the world and it was also ranked among the 12 greenest European cities. Madrid is the headquarters of the World Tourism Organization (UNWTO). The city's many parks make Madrid the greenest city in Europe.
