About Barcelona

Why Barcelona?

The capital and largest city of the autonomous community of Catalonia, Barcelona is the second most populous municipality of Spain. It is one of the largest metropolises on the Mediterranean Sea, which is located on the coast between the mouths of the rivers Llobregat and Besòs, and bounded to the west by the Serra de Collserola mountain range. It is one of the world's leading tourist, economic, trade fair and cultural centres, and its influence in commerce, sports, media, fashion, science, education, entertainment and the arts all contribute in making it one of the major global cities. For live music and theatre barcelona has many venues, including the world-renowned Gran Teatre del Liceu opera house, the Teatre Nacional de Catalunya, the Teatre Lliure and the Palau de la Música Catalana concert hall.

With a trade volume of 1.72 million TEU's in 2013, it is Europe's ninth largest container port. Also a modern re-creation by Spanish architects now stands in Barcelona, which was constructed in 1986. It has many historic buildings also, such as the symbol of Barcelona 'The Minor basilica of Sagrada Família', 'Palau de la Música Catalana'.

Adding to the beautiful experience Barcelona has the cuisine culture, for which one can go bankrupt. Spain being a dream destination for foodies, the cuisine varies from region to region. The paella feast is the most popular , which is reserved for celebrations and special occasions.
