About the conference

The 12th World Congress on Hospice and Palliative Care, scheduled for December 17-18, 2025 in Paris, France will be a landmark event in the field of hospice and palliative medicine. This congress will bring together leading experts, clinicians, researchers, policymakers and caregivers from around the world, providing a dynamic platform for the exchange of innovative research, compassionate practices and global perspectives in end-of-life and supportive care.

With a focus on addressing contemporary challenges in hospice and palliative care, the congress will cover a wide range of themes, from advancements in pain management and symptom relief to holistic approaches that enhance quality of life and dignity for patients and families. Participants will engage in thought-provoking discussions, hands-on workshops, and collaborative sessions, while also enjoying sample opportunities to connect with peers across disciplines and regions.
