About the conference

Welcome to the 12th World Congress on Hypertension, Cardiology, Primary Health, and Patient Care, scheduled to take place on June 19-20, 2025, in Paris, France. This prestigious event serves as a premier platform for professionals in the fields of cardiology, hypertension, primary health, and patient care to gather, share knowledge, and discuss the latest advancements and innovations.

Theme: "Advancing Cardiovascular Health Through Collaborative Care."

Our theme for this year emphasizes the importance of integrated and collaborative care in improving cardiovascular health outcomes. With a comprehensive approach that includes hypertension management, cardiology breakthroughs, primary health strategies, and patient-centered care, we aim to foster discussions that will pave the way for future advancements in these critical areas.

Why to attend the conference

The conference is designed for cardiologists, hypertension specialists, primary care physicians, nurses, healthcare professionals, researchers, academicians, and industry experts who are dedicated to improving cardiovascular health and patient care. It provides a unique opportunity to stay updated with the latest advancements, share your research, and network with peers from around the globe.

Stay Updated: Keep abreast of the latest research, clinical practices, and technological advancements in hypertension, cardiology, primary health, and patient care.

Expand Your Knowledge: Learn from the experiences and expertise of leading professionals in the field.

Network and Collaborate: Build connections with like-minded professionals and explore potential collaborations.
