About Dubai

Dubai, UAE
February
23-24, 2026

Dubai, one of the seven emirates of the United Arab Emirates (UAE), is a global hub for tourism, business, and innovation. Renowned for its ultramodern architecture, luxury shopping, and vibrant nightlife, Dubai attracts millions of visitors annually. Iconic landmarks such as the Burj Khalifa—the tallest building in the world—Palm Jumeirah, and the Dubai Mall offer unforgettable experiences to travelers from around the globe.

Tourists can enjoy a range of attractions, from desert safaris and dhow cruises along Dubai Creek to cultural sites like the Al Fahidi Historical District and the Dubai Museum. The city's multicultural cuisine, beach resorts, and year-round sunshine make it a top destination for leisure and relaxation.

In addition to tourism, Dubai is also a major center for international business and conferences. With world-class infrastructure, cutting-edge facilities, and convenient global connectivity, Dubai has become a preferred destination for hosting global summits, academic conferences, exhibitions, and trade fairs. Venues like the Dubai World Trade Centre (DWTC), Expo City Dubai, and various five-star hotels offer high-tech meeting spaces and event management services suitable for gatherings of all sizes.

Whether visiting for leisure or professional purposes, Dubai offers a seamless blend of business and pleasure. Its safe environment, efficient transport system, and high hospitality standards make it an ideal destination for both tourists and conference attendees.
