About the conference

The Neonatal Nursing Congress-2026 will be held on September 28–29, 2026 in Paris, France, bringing together leading professionals, researchers, and practitioners dedicated to improving the health and well-being of mothers and new-borns. With the theme “Transforming Challenges into Opportunities in Maternal and New-born Care,” the conference emphasizes innovative strategies, evidence-based practices, and collaborative approaches that address the evolving needs in neonatal nursing and maternal healthcare.

This two-day event will feature keynote lectures, interactive panel discussions, scientific sessions, and hands-on workshops focusing on vital topics such as neonatal intensive care, maternal mental health, breastfeeding support, midwifery advancements, and innovative technologies in maternal and child health. Experts will share insights on overcoming healthcare disparities, strengthening clinical practices, and implementing policies that improve outcomes for mothers and new-borns worldwide.

Theme: “Transforming Challenges into Opportunities in Maternal and Newborn Care.”
