About the conference

The 20th Annual Congress on Neuroscience, scheduled for August 25-26, 2025, in Paris, France, is set to be a premier event for advancing neuroscience research and practice. This congress brings together leading scientists, researchers, and healthcare practitioners from around the world to share ground breaking research, innovative methodologies, and emerging trends in neuroscience and related fields.

The conference's theme, "Exploring the Mind: Cutting-Edge Discoveries in Neuroscience," highlights the importance of equipping the neuroscience workforce to meet contemporary healthcare challenges. Key topics include curriculum development, technology integration in neurocongress, clinical simulation, and research strategies for evidence-based care.
