ABOUT VENUE

MADRID, SPAIN

Spain, officially known as the Kingdom of Spain, is a Southwestern European country skirting the Mediterranean Sea, the Atlantic Ocean, and beyond the Strait of Gibraltar. Its mainland of Europe is located on the Iberian Peninsula, and its girding area includes the Balearic Islets in the Mediterranean Sea, a many small islets in the Albertan Sea and the Canary Islets in the Atlantic Ocean. The Spanish region also includes African semi-exclaves in Ceuta, Melilla and Pennon de Velez across the Strait of Gibraltar. The landmass is framed by the British border overseas Gibraltar, south and east along the Mediterranean Sea; to the north by France, Andorra and the Bay of Biscay.

Spain is famous for its culture, food and scenery. It had major cities like Madrid, Barcelona and Valencia all offer unique traditions, languages and must-see sites! and they have the celebrations like Vibrant festivals such as La Fallas and La Tomatina draw huge crowds of both locals and tourists.

Madrid, a city in the interior of the Castilian plains, is the capital of Spain. Madrid is known as London of Spain and is known for its monuments and palaces of the 18th century and its home football team. In Madrid, you can wander its streets, visit its palaces during the day, watch a flamenco show, drink sangria and make it your perfect holiday. Madrid holidays can continue until sunrise and nightlife can continue until 6am.

Visit the Sunday flea market in El Rastro for street music and games, a place you should visit in Madrid. Be careful in this area as it is known for pickpockets. The Fuencarral Market (Mercado de Fuencarral) which opens until midnight has many shops and dozens of cafes, exhibitions and cinemas. International retail purchases are available in Salamanca and Goya Street. The Plaza Mayor has Calle Toledo and El Mercado de San Miguel (San Miguel Plaza) if you want to buy traditional Spanish products such as leather and jute material. Calle Ortega y Gasset and Jorge Juan St are high-end shopping malls and designer products. If you want to buy designer products for about half the price visit the Las Rozas Village Chic Outlet in Las Rozas. The Plaza de Espana in downtown Madrid and Salamanca have a large shopping mall with a variety of shops and restaurants.
