INVITATION

Dear Attendees,

We are delighted to invite you to the 9th International Conference on Obesity and Diet Imbalance (OBESITY DIET 2026), scheduled to take place in the vibrant city of London, UK, on June 25–26, 2026. Held under the theme "Global Approaches to Combating Obesity and Diet Imbalance," this prestigious event promises to be a dynamic gathering of thought leaders, innovators, and global experts.

Conferences like OBESITY DIET 2026 serve as essential platforms for uniting the global scientific community, healthcare practitioners, industry pioneers, and policy influencers. The event will feature powerful keynote presentations, engaging panel discussions, hands-on technical workshops, poster exhibitions, and outstanding networking opportunities to inspire collaboration and accelerate progress.

We are proud to welcome an outstanding roster of internationally acclaimed speakers and visionaries who will address urgent issues in obesity, metabolic health, dietary behaviors, and public nutrition policy. The program will highlight cutting-edge research in obesity prevention, clinical care, food systems, behavioral science, and technological advancements in weight management. Whether you are a researcher, healthcare professional, academic, policymaker, or student, this conference offers a unique opportunity to share your work, discover innovative solutions, and build lasting connections across disciplines. Join us in London as we come together to shape the future of obesity research and nutrition science through shared knowledge and transformative collaboration.

Warm regards,
Organizing Committee
