INVITATION

Dear Attendees,

We are excited to present the 6th International conference on Optometry (Optometry Meet 2025), scheduled for June12-13, 2025 in London, UK. This conference invites participants from across the globe to engage and share their insights and ground breaking advancements in the fields of Ophthalmology.

Optometry Meet 2025 offers an exceptional platform for professionals to interact and collaborate with leading experts from various disciplines. The conference aims to bring together eminent researchers, clinicians and academic professionals under one roof to foster meaningful discussions and showcase their research.

Why to Attend:

As medical education becomes increasingly accessible globally, the 6th International conference on Optometry (Optometry Meet 2025) aims to drive forward the advancement and management of health concerning neonatal, pediatric, and Geriatric optometric medicine. It also seeks to enhance global educational outreach and promote collaboration in tackling child and family vision health challenges.

We look forward to personally welcoming you to our conference!

Sincerely,
Optometry Meet 2025
