About Prague

Prague is the capital of the Czech Republic (Czechia), a nation situated at the core of Central Europe, circumscribed by Austria, Germany, Poland and Slovakia.

In the Middle Ages, Prague turned into the capital of Charles IV's Bohemian Kingdom, with Prague Castle the seat of the domain. What's more, the city has assumed a urgent job in the district from that point onward.

Prague's epic history has created a city loaded with excellence, of shocking Gothic, Renaissance and Baroque time structures, and of glorious squares.

Prague Castle: In current occasions, the statist socialist time of the mid-twentieth century has offered approach to dynamic private enterprise. The travel industry has helped drive the city's recovery, changing dim once-over structures into brilliant exquisite eateries, energetic bars and wash lodgings.

Prague Tourism Fact: In 1992 the verifiable focal point of Prague, every one of the 866 hectares, was recorded in the UNESCO World Cultural and Natural Heritage Register
