Market Analysis

Globalburdenofpediatric mortality is increasing drastically every year. WHO estimates that 8.8 million deaths occur annually among infants and children < 5 years of age. 3.8 million in the first 30 days of life 36% of neonatal deaths due to infectious diseases. Nearly 9 million children under five die every year. Reflecting this imperative, we believe that professionally-oriented education in to cure pediatric diseases is essential in the training of clinicians and clinical academics who will provide the future leadership in this key area for global health. Pediatrics-2019 aims to bring together leading academic scientists, researchers and research scholars to exchange and share their experiences and research results about all aspects of Pediatrics. It also provides the chance for researchers, practitioners and educators to present and discuss the most recent innovations, trends, and concerns, practical challenges encountered and the solutions adopted in the fields of Pediatrics.

Thank you so much. Thank you for the Organizers. I am really honoured by moderating this meeting and have a speech here. I made a lot of good friends here. I hope I will be here next year also

Eyad Altamimi
Jordan University of Science and Technology, Jordan

Congratulations to the Pediatrics conference. I got new ideas to study in future. I am very happy

Tung Van Nguyen
08 Military Central Hospital, VietNam

I was extremely pleased with this conference and one of the best conferences I have attended. It was as well organized including all speakers, organizers, the hotel, the hall were comfortable (efficiently organized). It was a highly motivating for me, it gave me a great experience and motivation. I got to network with, and learn from, popular scientist and newest updates in Pediatrics practice. I appreciate the organizer help with everything starting from visa processing and registration fees. Received the honour at the esteemed event

Mohammed Beshir
Jimma University, Ethiopia
