TOURIST ATTRACTIONS

Philadelphia the only World Heritage City in the United States This is the largest city in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the fifth-most-populous in the United States. The area's many universities and colleges make Philadelphia a top international study destination, as the city has evolved into an educational and economic hub. Philadelphia is the center of economic activity in Pennsylvania and is home to seven Fortune 1000 companies.

BOATHOUSE ROW

Boathouse Row is a historic site located in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the east bank of the Schuylkill River, just north of the Fairmount Water Works and the Philadelphia Museum of Art. It consists of a row of 15 boathouses housing social and rowing clubs and their racing shells. Each of the boathouses has its own history, and all have addresses on both Boathouse Row and Kelly Drive (named after famous Philadelphia oarsman John B. Kelly Jr.).

PLEASE TOUCH MUSEUM

Since 1976, Please Touch Museum has been the Children's Museum of Philadelphia. Over three decades and more than two million visitors later, Please Touch Museum has grown into one of the nation's premier children's museums by becoming experts in play. The mission of the museum is to enrich the lives of children by creating learning opportunities through play, laying the foundation for a lifetime of hands-on learning and cultural awareness.

LOVE PARK

Love Park, officially known as John F. Kennedy Plaza, is a plaza located in Center City, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. The park is nicknamed Love Park for its reproduction of Robert Indiana's Love sculpture which overlooks the plaza.
