About the conference

The 38th World Summit on Positive Psychology, Happiness, Mindfulness, and Wellness sounds like an enriching event dedicated to exploring various facets of well-being and personal development. Held in Paris, France on April 23-24, 2025, this summit likely offers a platform for researchers, practitioners, and enthusiasts to exchange ideas, insights, and strategies for fostering positivity, enhancing happiness, cultivating mindfulness, and promoting overall wellness. It's an opportunity to delve into the latest research, techniques, and practices that contribute to individual and collective flourishing. Conferences like these often feature keynote speakers, panel discussions, workshops, and networking opportunities, fostering collaboration and innovation in the field of positive psychology and related disciplines.

Theme: "Fostering happiness, resilience, and mindfulness for holistic wellness in a global context".

Why to attend the conference

We collaborate with genuine partners, exhibitors, and supporters from all over the world who are committed to advancing satisfaction, health, care, and prosperity development and who seek a comprehensive environment in which associations, establishments, institutes, clinics, clinical centres, and social orders can flourish for enhanced personal fulfilment.

Workshops and interactive sessions provide opportunities to learn and offer

Studios and intelligent meetings include extensive collaboration between moderators and agents around a training thought or active experience. These intuitive meetings may take the form of a board, an organised discussion, or a discussion – all of which include significant collaboration with the members. As a result, a variety of meetings, feature addresses, discussion, studio, and banner show will give you the opportunity to share and present research to your global partners.
