About Melbourne

Melbourne is the capital of Australia and most popular city of the Australia, The name “Melbourne” covers an urban agglomeration which comprises the broader metropolitan area, as well as being the common name for its city centre and the metropolis is located on the large natural bay of Port Phillip and expands into the hinterlands towards the Dandenong and Macedon mountain ranges, Mornington Peninsula and Yarra Valley. It is home to many of Australia’s largest and oldest cultural institutions such as the Melbourne Cricket Ground, the National Gallery of Victoria, the State Library of Victoria and the UNESCO World Heritage-listed Royal Exhibition Building.

Melbourne is good in education, entertainment, health care, research and development, tourism and sport so, it is considered as world’s most liveable city, according to the Economist. It is a leading financial centre and Health Care centre in the Asia-Pacific region, and ranks among the top 15 cities in the world in the Global Financial graph. It is the birthplace of Australian impressionism, Australian football, the Australian film and television industries, and Australian contemporary dance. It is recognised as a UNESCO City of Literature and a major centre for street art, music and theatre.
