About the conference

We invite participants from around the world to join us at the “12th Annual Congress on Pulmonary and Critical Care ,” scheduled during November 28-29, 2024 in Paris, France. This year’s Pulmonary Meet 2024 will focus on the theme “Groundbreaking Advances in Respiratory Medicine.”

The goal of this conference is to exchange innovative ideas and recent developments in current research by bringing together leading global researchers, industry experts, scholars, decision-makers, and other professionals in pulmonology and critical care. Pulmonary Meet 2024 is set to be one of the most noteworthy events of the year.

Theme :” Groundbreaking Advances in Respiratory Medicine”

Why to attend the conference

Pulmonary Meet 2024 invites pulmonologists, respiratory care practitioners, and specialists in respiratory medicine from around the globe to explore the latest trends in screening, diagnosing, treating, and managing respiratory diseases. The conference will feature strategic sessions on a wide range of topics, including COPD, asthma, allergies, cystic fibrosis, pneumonia, tuberculosis, emphysema, lung cancer, complex chest infections, pulmonary fibrosis, sleep apnea, interstitial lung disease, lung nodules, chronic cough, influenza, mycobacterial infections, pediatric pulmonary conditions, bronchiectasis, and critical care. Additionally, the conference will address health care disciplines focused on optimizing cardiopulmonary function, health, and wellness.
