Getting Around Valencia

The Eternal City: Valencia!

Valencia is the capital of the autonomous community of Valencia and the third-largest city in Spain. The Port of Valencia is the 5th busiest container port in Europe and the busiest container port on the Mediterranean Sea. The city is ranked at Gamma+ in the Globalization and World Cities Research Network. Valencia is integrated into an industrial area on the Costa del Azahar.Due to its long history, this is a city with numerous popular celebrations and traditions, such as the Fallas (featuring the traditional Spanish dish paella), which were declared as Fiestas of National Tourist Interest of Spain in 1965 and Intangible cultural heritage by UNESCO in November 2016.

Cuisine Corner!

Paella which means “the pan” in Spanish refers to the way it is prepare and served –on a large pan. The dish is very popular in Valencia and Murcia – the regions on the eastern coastal of Spain which is renowned for rice dishes.

Paella became popular in Spain thanks to the Moors, a group of Muslim people living in Northwestern Africa.

The most unique kinda of Paelle are Bomba and Calasparra. It is impressive that cooking such dishes requires one to add lot of water when cooking the rice but the grains still retain their original shape, making the Paella perfect.
