About the conference

Welcome to the 4th International Conference on Tuberculosis, Lung Health, and Respiratory Diseases! We extend our warmest greetings to all our esteemed speakers, delegates, and sponsors.

As we convene in the picturesque city of Paris, France, on October 24-25, 2024, we embark on a journey dedicated to advancing knowledge and strategies in the fight against tuberculosis and respiratory illnesses.

Under the theme of “Multidisciplinary Approaches to Tuberculosis Management,” Tuberculosis 2024 aims to serve as a pivotal platform for the exchange of cutting-edge research, insights, and best practices in the field. With a diverse array of sessions, workshops, and discussions, this conference promises to provide invaluable opportunities for learning, collaboration, and networking among professionals and experts from across the globe.

Amidst the scientific discourse and policy deliberations, we encourage you to embrace the spirit of camaraderie and community that defines this gathering. Let us seize this occasion not only to expand our understanding and skills but also to forge lasting connections and friendships.
