About San Diego

San Diego, California, USA September 17-18, 2018

San Diego Located on the coast of the Pacific Ocean in Southern California, San Diego is widely known as "America's Finest City." Famous for its miles and miles of white-sand beaches and amazing weather, the city offers an abundance of fun attractions for visitors of all ages.

Boasting a citywide population of more than 1.3 million and more than 3 million residents countywide, San Diego is California's second largest city and the United States' eighth largest. San Diego County is made up of 18 incorporate cities and towns along with other charismatic neighbourhoods and communities, such as Carlsbad, Coronado, Del Mar, Downtown San Diego's Gaslamp Quarter, Point Loma, Chula Vista, Old Town, La Jolla, and North Park. Discovered in 1542 by European explorer Juan Rodriguez Cabrillo, San Diego was originally named San Miguel. The bay and area of present-day San Diego was given its current name 60 years later, in 1602. European settlement in present-San Diego County first began with the founding of the first Catholic mission, Mission San Diego de Alcala, in 1769. San Diego is renowned for its incredible climate, which is characterized as warm, dry summers and mild winters with most of the annual precipitation falling between December and March.
