About the conference

Welcome to the official website of the 5th International Conference on Vaccines, Vaccination, and Immunization, slated to take place on August 21-22, 2024 in the picturesque city of Paris, France. With a steadfast commitment to advancing global health, this conference serves as a pivotal platform for the exchange of cutting-edge knowledge, breakthrough research, and innovative strategies in the fields of vaccines, vaccination, and immunization.

Our goal is to foster a collaborative environment that bridges the gap between research, policy, and practice, uniting researchers, healthcare professionals, policymakers, industry leaders, advocates, and students on a shared mission to enhance public health through vaccination.

Theme: "Practices to cure wounds and illness by healing from power of herbs and incantation".

Why to attend the conference

The usage of alternative medicine is prevalent as it is being used effectively as an integrated treatment with a fewer side effects than western medicine and is a potential alternative to pain medications or steroid treatments. This sole conference will offer a stand for Eastern medicine to meet with Western medicine and will bring together researchers, practitioners, educators and other healthcare professionals, business delegates, students and young researchers all across the world and shall serve as an opportunity to present and confer current advances in acupuncture research that have
