About Yokohama

Yokohama is located in the center of Japan, along the coastline of Japan's Pacific Ocean, and one of the 15 Japanese Government-designated cities. The total population of Yokohama is 3.7 million persons, making the city the second largest after Tokyo's 23 Wards. A number of foreign enterprises have established their branches in Yokohama by taking full advantage of the Yokohama Port which is an international trading port. Yokohama is a city of dreams for every Japanese person as well as its local citizens who are very proud of living here because it is not only very famous as a tourist mecca. The Yokohama, referred to as "Hamakko" in Japanese, has been very cheerful at enjoying life and willing to adopt whatever is good.
