Purpose

36th World Cancer Conference is a forum for the exchange of expertise and knowledge among various interdisciplinary subjects in the fields of cancer.

Goals

The emphasis of the conference program revolves around evidence-based practice, educational innovation, practical application, and peer to peer networking and collaboration. The goal of the conference is to bring about a transformative professional development experience by bringing together the renowned scientific experts to catalyze and advance scientific knowledge about cancer and providing them an opportunity to present the topics on most recent research findings, promote and enhance scientific collaborations around the world.

Further, the uniqueness of the event lies in bringing together Tumor and Cancer Experts and Investigators, Tumor & Cancer Immunology Scientists, and Immunology Researchers to promote and enhance meaningful collaborations that effectively analyze critical responses of the elderly population to the treatment around the globe and address those issues for overcoming the barriers that limit access to care and services.

Objectives

After participating in this meeting, attendees should be able to

Discuss emerging issues in cancer

Discuss and apply recent research findings related to Tumor and Cancers and immunization research & development

Reflect on the place of critical distance in Tumor and Cancers and immunization research & development

About Zurich, Switzerland

Zurich
Switzerland
October 11-13
2018

The city of Zurich lies in the heart of Europe and at the center of Switzerland, on the northern shores of Lake Zurich. Its multicultural flair and the variety of leisure activities on offer attract guests from all over the world to this "region of short routes". Zurich is quick and easy to reach, whether by train, plane or private vehicle. Its international airport has direct connections with over 150 destinations. Just a 10-minute train ride from the airport and situated right in the city center, Zurich's Main Railway Station is regarded as a central European railroad hub. More than 400,000 people live in this experience, science and business center. Thanks to its top-quality infrastructure set amidst natural surroundings, it is a popular place for study and research. For example, at Zurich University or the Swiss Federal Institute of Technology Zurich (ETH); built by Gottfried Semper from 1858 to 1864, the ETH Zürich is today associated with 21 Nobel prizewinners. Some 150 years ago, part of the city's fortifications were transformed into what is now arguably the most famous "Station Road" in the world, the Bahnhofstrasse. Zurich's shopping mall has contributed largely to the city's reputation as an El Dorado for shoppers and is a top address for international fashion labels, jewelry and watches. However, it is just one of the places where you can find urban Zurich labels; whether in Zurich-West or in the Aussersihl quarter, you often come across local brands where you least expect them. They inspire the fashion-conscious and cause a sensation far beyond Switzerland's borders – as has, for example, the cult label Freitag, with its unique style of bags and accessories. Zurich boasts the highest density of clubs in Switzerland – here, you can never turn up too late. From a house music party in the legendary Kaufleuten to Greatest Hits from the Eighties at the oldest club in the city, the Mascotte, to a gay event at the Labor Bar – parties really get going after 11.00 pm and continue into the wee hours of the morning.
