About Kyoto, Japan

Kyoto is one of the famous and beautiful cities in Japan which is in the Kansai region of Japan and it is known throughout the globe for its stunning beauty. It is country's seventh largest city with the population of around 1.4 million people. Today Kyoto is the modern city but retains many of its long-established traditions. It is one of the major tourist attractions in Asia because of the majestic palaces, statues, and villas, as well as by the carefully tended Japanese gardens. Osaka's Kansai international airport is the nearest airport to the Kyoto. The way to get to Kyoto from the Kansai International airport is by trains or airport buses which will take around 70-100 minutes. The temperature in Kyoto may ranges from 24C to 13C. Kyoto was the capital of Japan for over a thousand years and known for cultural and historical heart of the Japan. It is the best place to experience traditional temples, historical places, gardens, famous restaurants and many festivals in Japan. Kyoto has many beautiful tourist attractions such as Buddhist temples, Shinto shrines, Japanese gardens and many more. Kyoto's attractions include Fushimi Inari Shrine, the Gion geisha district, Arashiyama's bamboo forest and the historic Higashiyama District. Kyoto is also a best place for the food lovers there is no better place to begin than "Kyoto's Kitchen", the colorful and boisterous Nishiki Market. Shopping is also a beautiful experience in Kyoto, with merchandise ranging from traditional Japanese crafts made by local artisans to cutting-edge couture. Kyoto a perfect destination for visitors looking to explore Japan's traditional culture without sacrificing the modern comforts.
