Invitation

Dear Attendees,

We are glad to announce the 25th World Pediatrics Conference to be held in Warsaw, Poland from Oct 18-20, 2018 organized by Conference Series Ltd, Europe in collaboration and cooperation from enthusiastic academicians and editorial Board Members.

This conference is a unique international platform that's a confluence of all stake holders of the ecosystem – Paediatrician, Academia, Researchers, Industries, Innovators – coming together to present and discuss current topics in Pediatrics, Pediatric Cardiology, Pediatric Oncology, Pediatrics Neurology, Neonotology, Pediatrics case studies, Pediatrics Nursing, Pediatrics Critical Care and Emergency Medicine, and will be available to discuss with you the latest issues and trends in "The formative methodologies and recent trends in Clinical Pediatrics".

As the premier event, we have developed a program with your interests in mind. We have not only increased the number of opportunities for you to network with colleagues from across the world but also introduced more focused sessions that will feature cutting edge presentations, special panel discussions, and livelier interaction with industry leaders and experts.

Life is full of give and take. Make it count in your professional life. Attend the World Pediatrics 2018 Conference to network with your peers, exchange expertise and experiences, and arm yourself with the latest information to take your department to the next level.

We look forward to personally welcoming you to Warsaw, Poland this October .

Sincerely,
World Pediatrics 2018

About Warsaw

Warsaw is the sprawling capital of Poland. Its widely varied architecture reflects the city's long, turbulent history, from Gothic churches and neoclassical palaces to Soviet-era blocks and modern skyscrapers. The city's Old Town was restored after heavy damage during WWII. Its heart is Market Square, with pastel buildings and open-air cafes. The Monument of the Warsaw Mermaid at its center is the city's symbol. Gothic architecture is represented in the majestic churches but also at the burgher houses and fortifications. Although contemporary Warsaw is a fairly young city, it has numerous tourist attractions. Apart from the Warsaw Old Town quarter, reconstructed after World War II, each borough has something to offer. Among the most notable landmarks of the Old Town are the Royal Castle, King Sigismund's Column, Market Square, and the Barbican.

The flora of the city may be considered very rich in species. The species richness is mainly due to the location of Warsaw within the border region of several big floral regions comprising substantial proportions of close-to-wilderness areas (natural forests, wetlands along the Vistula) as well as arable land, meadows and forests. The Saxon Garden, covering an area of 15.5 ha, was formally a royal garden. There are over 100 different species of trees and the avenues are a place to sit and relax. As the capital of Poland, Warsaw is the political centre of the country. All state agencies are located there, including the Polish Parliament, the Presidential Office and the Supreme Court. In the Polish parliament the city and the area are represented by 31 MPs (out of 460). Additionally, Warsaw elects two MEPs (Members of the European Parliament).

Warsaw, especially its city centre (Śródmieście), is home not only to many national institutions and government agencies, but also to many domestic and international companies. In 2006, 304,016 companies were registered in the city. Warsaw's ever-growing business community has been noticed globally, regionally, and nationally.
