CAREY CONLEY

Author, Speaker, Host of Moving Through & Beyond Podcast

Why Carey

"Carey empowers others to use their emotions for good and understand that pain is not a stop sign, it's an indicator we need to head in a better direction. So many of us struggle to understand how to keep moving when life gets hard and Carey's vision exercise is something that will help, for all of these hard times ahead. We highly recommend working with Carey and her team, they were truly a joy to be with."

-David Meltzer, Co-Founder of Sports 1 Marketing

Keynote Topics/Workshops

- Today is Your Someday - You Just Need a Plan
- Clear and Clarity Pave the Path to Peace and Joy
- Use the C.R.Y.S.T.A.L. Formula to Achieve Success
- Keep Looking Up: Finding Purpose After Tragedy

Booking Information

Click to See Carey Speak | www.CareyConley.com | 720-331-8693

For the last 20+ years,
Carey has had a flourishing business career which has taken her around the world. Unfortunately, tragedy struck, and everything changed. She lost her husband, Ross, in 2014 and just three years later she lost her son, Cole, at age 26 - both to suicide.

After these devastating losses, she was faced with a choice. To find purpose through despair, or to throw in the towel. She chose purpose.

While she has enjoyed her business prior to losing Ross and Cole, she knew that this next chapter was calling her to rise to a new level that would have an impact on more people, on a larger scale. She wants to help those who feel lost in this world without a purpose.

Carey helps people create a crystal clear written vision for every area of their life, so they take action every day toward living out their purpose. The purpose is what gives people hope.