Invitation

Welcome to Paris, the capital and most populous municipality of France, and experience neuroscience illuminated as never before. EuroSciCon is proud to host the 16th World Congress on Alzheimers and Dementia, August 06-07, 2019 in Paris, France. This year's theme is Reconnoitering facets and intense novelties in Alzheimers and Dementia for futuristic challenges.

Alzheimers and Dementia 2019 will provide an extraordinary opportunity for Psychologists and Neurologists of all strips and colors to share their research with colleagues, and discuss and debate the latest advances in the field. We invite Psychologists, Neurologists, Pharmacologists, and scientists in related disciplines to come together and inform each other in an environment conducive to education and interaction. Seasoned scientists, young researchers, mid-career professionals and just starting out are all welcome.

With a broad array of keynote presentations, panel discussions, workshops, and poster sessions, Alzheimers and Dementia Conference is the perfect venue not only to dive into your field of neuroscience interests but also to expand the scope of your knowledge. 25 tracks are devoted to subjects such as the Alzheimers disease and dementia, fronto temporal dementia, vascular dementia, mixed dementia, lewybody dementia, drug development in dementia, neuro imaging and many more.

The Organizing Committee has done its best to set up a framework that we think will allow for a creative interplay of ideas. All we need now to convert the extensive program on paper to an active and vibrant Psychological forum in person is your active participation

About Destination Paris, France

Paris, France's capital, is a major European city and a global center for art, fashion, gastronomy and culture. Its 19th-century cityscape is crisscrossed by wide boulevards and the River Seine. Beyond such landmarks as the Eiffel Tower and the 12th-century, Gothic Notre-Dame cathedral, the city is known for its cafe culture and designer boutiques along the Rue du Faubourg Saint- Honore. The City of Paris's administrative limits form an East-West oval centred on the island at its historical heart, the Île de la Cite; this island is near the top of an arc of the river Seine that divides the city into southern Rive Gauche (Left Bank) and northern Rive Droite regions. Paris is the core of a built-up area that extends well beyond its limits: commonly referred to as the agglomération Parisienne, and statistically as measure of urban area, the Paris agglomeration's 2013 population of 10,601,122 made it the largest urban area in the European Union.City-influenced commuter activity reaches well beyond even this in a statistical aire urbaine de Paris (a measure of metropolitan area), that had a 2013 population of 12,405,426, a number one-fifth the population of France, the largest metropolitan area in the Eurozone
