Invitation

Welcome to Barcelona, the City of Arts and Science, and experience the science of Dentistry illuminated as never before. EuroSciCon is proud to host the 24th International Conference on Dentistry and Dental Practice, January 28-29, 2018 in Barcelona, Spain. This year's theme focuses on "Novel dental approaches in creating awareness on oral health". Dental Practice 2019 will provide an unprecedented opportunity for Dentists of all stripes and colors to share their research with colleagues and discuss and debate the latest advances in the field. We invite clinicians, pharmacologists, and scientists in related disciplines to come together and inform each other in an environment conducive to education and interaction. Seasoned scientists, young researchers, mid-career professionals and just starting out are all welcome.

With a broad array of keynote presentations, panel discussions, workshops, and poster sessions, the Dentistry & Dental Practice 2019 is the perfect venue not only to dive into your particular dental interests but also to expand the scope of your knowledge.

The Organizing Committee has done its best to set up a framework that we think will allow for a creative interplay of ideas. All we need now to convert the extensive program on paper to an active and vibrant forum in person by your active participation.

About Destination Barcelona

Barcelona, the cosmopolitan capital of Spain's Catalonia region, is known for its art and architecture. The fantastical Sagrada Família church and other modernist landmarks designed by Antoni Gaudí dot the city. Museu Picasso and Fundació Joan Miró feature modern art by their namesakes. City history museum MUHBA, includes several Roman archaeological sites. Barcelona is one of the world's leading tourist, economic, trade fair and cultural centers, and its influence in commerce, education, entertainment, media, fashion, science, and the arts all contribute to its status as one of the world's major global cities. It is a major cultural and economic center in southwestern Europe, 24th in the world (before Zürich, after Frankfurt) and a financial center. In 2008 it was the fourth most economically powerful city by GDP in the European Union and 35th in the world with GDP amounting to €177 billion. In 2012 Barcelona had a GDP of $170 billion; it is leading Spain in both employment rate and GDP per capita change. Founded as a Roman city, in the Middle Ages Barcelona became the capital of the County of Barcelona. After merging with the Kingdom of Aragon, Barcelona continued to be an important city in the Crown of Aragon as an economic and administrative center of this Crown and the capital of the Principality of Catalonia. Barcelona has a rich cultural heritage and is today an important cultural center and a major tourist destination. Particularly renowned are the architectural works of Antoni Gaudí and Lluís Domènech i Montaner, which have been designated UNESCO World Heritage Sites. The headquarters of the Union for the Mediterranean is in Barcelona. The city is known for hosting the 1992 Summer Olympics as well as world-class conferences and expositions and also many international sport tournaments.
