About Destination Vienna

Vienna is the capital and largest city of Austria. Vienna is Austria's primary city, with a population of about 1.8 million, and its cultural, economic, and political center. It is the 7th-largest city by population within city limits in the European Union. It has the second largest number of German speakers after Berlin. Vienna is host to many major international organizations, which includes United Nations and OPEC. The city is located in the eastern part of Austria and is close to the borders of the Czech Republic, Slovakia, and Hungary. These regions work together in a European Centrope border region. Along with nearby Bratislava, Vienna forms a metropolitan region with 3 million inhabitants. In 2001, the city center was designated a UNESCO World Heritage Site.
