Invitation

Welcome to Paris, the City of Light and Science, and experience the science of oncology illuminated as never. EuroSciCon is proud to host the 2nd Edition of International Conferences on Oncology and Oncologists, November 5-6, 2018, in Paris, France. This year's theme is Enlightening the future panorama of Oncology. Oncology 2018 will provide an unprecedented opportunity for oncologists of all stripes and colors to share their research with colleagues, and discuss and debate the latest advances in the field. We invite oncologists and scientists in related disciplines to come together and inform each other in an environment conducive to education and interaction. Seasoned scientists, young researchers, mid-career professionals and just starting out are all welcome.

With a broad array of keynote presentations, panel discussions, workshops, and poster sessions, the Oncology Conference is the perfect venue not only to dive into your oncological interests but also to expand the scope of your knowledge. The Organizing Committee has done its best to set up a framework that we think will allow for a creative interplay of ideas. All we need now to convert the extensive program on paper to an active and vibrant oncological forum in person is your active participation.

About Destination Paris

Paris, the world's most popular city destination, has plenty of must-see places but make sure you spend at least a day strolling off the beaten path, as this is the only way to discover the real Paris: a lively cosmopolitan but undeniably French city. The center of Paris is divided in 20 arrondissements with the majority of the world known attractions Eiffel Tower, Champs-Elysees, Louvre, Panthéon, Notre-Dame etc situated in the first 8 arrondissements. The dining in Paris is iconic: France's notoriety for its cooking goes before it, and whether you look for a comfortable neighborhood bistro or a triple-Michelin-featured sanctuary to gastronomy, you'll discover each foundation prides itself on lovely planning and introduction of quality deliver, constantly presented with wine. Tempting patisseries, boulangeries (pastry kitchens), fromageries (cheddar shops) and swarmed, beautiful road markets are ideal for an outing to take to the city's parks and gardens. A large group of culinary courses – from home kitchens through to the world's most lofty cookery schools – offers direction for all calendars, capacities and spending plans. Paris remains at the forefront of international trends, and browsing emerging and established designer boutiques and flagship haute couture houses is a quintessential part of any visit.
