About Destination Lisbon

Lisbon is the continental Europe's westernmost capital city with importance in finance, commerce, media, entertainment, arts, international trade, education and tourism. It is also the capital and the largest city of Portugal, with a population of 552,700 within its administrative limits in an area of 100.05 km². Its urban area extends the city's administrative limits with a population of around 2.7 million people, being the 11th most populous urban area in the European Union. About 2.8 million people live in the Lisbon Metropolitan Area (which represents approximately 27% of the country's population). It contributes with a higher GDP PPP per capita than any other region in Portugal. It's GDP amounts to 96.3 billion USD and thus 32,434$ per capita, 40% higher than the average European Union's GDP per capita. The city is listed with 7th-most-visited city in Southern Europe. The city occupies 32nd place of highest gross earnings in the world. Most of the headquarters of multinationals in the country are located in the Lisbon area. It is also the political center of the country, as its seat of Government and residence of the Head of State.

The lisbon is crossed by historical boulevards and monuments along the main thoroughfares, particularly in the upper districts; notable among these are the Avenue of Liberty, Avenida Fontes Pereira de Melo, Avenida Almirante Reis and Avenue of the Republic. The Pombaline Lower Town area covers about 235,620 square meters of Lisbon.
