About Destination Barcelona

Spain is a royal state which is situated on the Iberian Peninsula in southwestern side of Europe. Spain's 1,214 km border with Portugal is one of the longest interminable borders in the European Union. In the ancient modern period, Spain became one of history's first universal provincial empires, leaving a vast cultural and morphological tradition which includes over 500 million Spanish speakers, making it the world's second most spoken first language. Modern Spain is a democracy organized in the form of a monistic government under a constitutional command. It is an advanced country with the 13th largest austerity in the world. Spain's architecture presents one of the broadest and richest testimonies in Europe to thousands of years of building ingenuity.

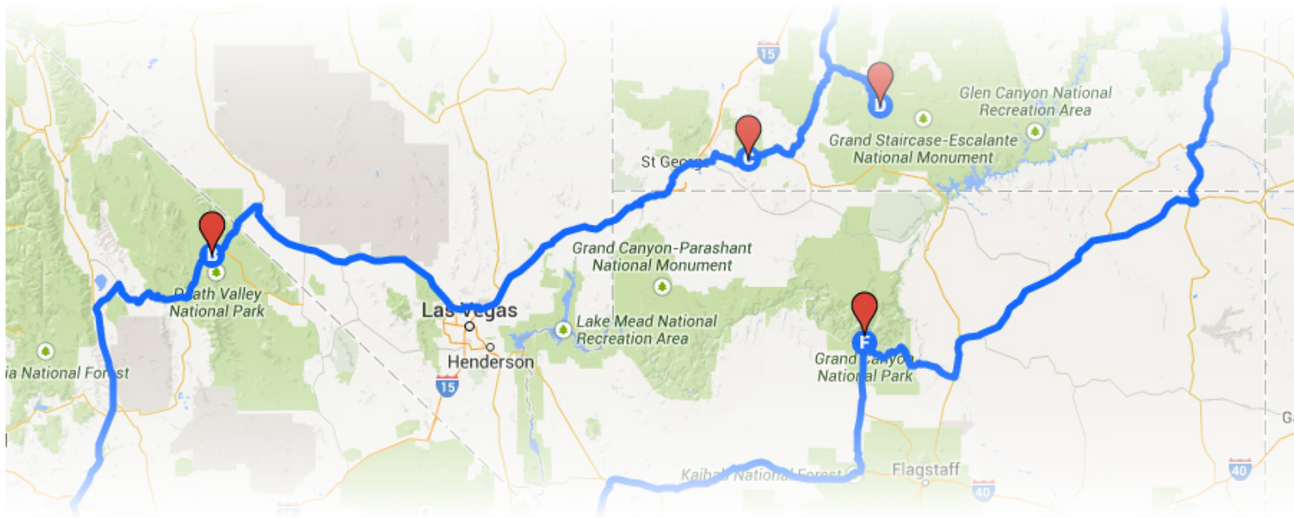

Barcelona, a Gothic and Modernist marvel on the Mediterranean Sea, and it is recognized for its quirky, diverse, cool character. Barcelona has become the first and famous tourist destination of Spain, it has got everything to please the majority of visitors with a history among the oldest in Europe, It has got an inland full of charm not to forget beautiful beaches in La Costa Brava. Whether it's by excavating Barcelona's past in the hidden courtyards of the Barri Gòtic, or by relishing the charms of the modernist city, you will discover many interesting things that make Barcelona one of Spain's most livable and energetic cities and one of the most interesting cities in Europe.
