Invitation

Welcome to London, the City of Arts and Science, and experience the science of Preventive Medicine and Public Health illuminated like never before. EuroSciCon is proud to host the 9th Edition of Preventive Medicine and Public Health, July 16-17, 2018 in London, UK. This year's theme is Science-based solutions for addressing global pervasive & preventable health issues. Preventive Medicine 2018 will provide an unprecedented opportunity for Preventive Medicine Specialists of all stripes and colors to share their research with colleagues, and discuss and debate the latest advances in the field. We invite Preventive Medicine Specialists, pharmacologists, and scientists in related disciplines to come together and inform each other in an environment conducive to education and interaction. Seasoned scientists, young researchers, mid-career professionals and just starting out are all welcome.

With a broad array of keynote presentations, panel discussions, workshops, and poster sessions, the Preventive Medicine Conference is the perfect venue not only to dive into your particular medical interests but also to expand the scope of your knowledge. 15 tracks are devoted to subjects such as the Public Health, Occupational Health, Preventive Medicine and Diabetes, Preventive Medicine and Chronic Diseases, and the regulatory arena.

The Organizing Committee has done its best to set up a framework that we think will allow for a creative interplay of ideas. All we need now to convert the extensive program on paper to an active and vibrant toxicological forum in person is your active participation.
