About Destination Sydney

Sydney is the state capital of New South Wales and the most populous city in Australia and Oceania. Located on Australia's east coast, the metropolis surrounds Port Jackson and extends about 70 km (43.5 mi) on its periphery towards the Blue Mountains to the west, Hawkesbury to the north, and Macarthur to the south.

Despite being one of the most expensive cities in the world, the 2018 Mercer Quality of Living Survey ranks. Sydney tenth in the world in terms of quality of living, making it one of the most livable cities Sydney has hosted major international sporting events such as the 2000 Summer Olympics.

The city is among the top fifteen most-visited cities in the world, with millions of tourists coming each year to see the city's landmarks. Education became a proper focus for the colony from the 1870s when public schools began to form and schooling became compulsory. The population of Sydney is now highly educated. 90% of working age residents has completed some schooling and 57% have completed the highest level of school.
