Invitation

Welcome to Edinburgh, the City of Arts and Science, and experience the science of veterinary illuminated as never before. EuroSciCon is proud to host the 12th Euro-Global Summit on Veterinary and Animal Sciences, October 11-12, 2018 in Edinburgh, Scotland. This year's theme is Pathfinder for Global Challenges and opportunities in Veterinary & Animal Sciences. Euro Veterinary Congress 2018 will provide an unprecedented opportunity for veterinarian and animal scientists of all stripes and colors to share their research with colleagues, and discuss and debate the latest advances in the field. We invite veterinarians, animal scientist, and researchers in related disciplines to come together and inform each other in an environment conducive to education and interaction. Seasoned scientists, young researchers, mid-career professionals and just starting out are all welcome.

With a broad array of keynote presentations, panel discussions, workshops, and poster sessions, the veterinary Conference is the perfect venue not only to dive into your particular research interests but also to expand the scope of your knowledge. Tracks are devoted to very upcoming and challenging parts of veterinary and animal sciences

The Organizing Committee has done its best to set up a framework that we think will allow for a creative interplay of ideas. All we need now to convert the extensive program on paper to an active and vibrant research forum in person is your active participation.

About Destination Edinburgh

Edinburgh is the capital city of Scotland and one of its 32 council areas which is located in Lothian on the Firth of Forth's southern shore. Edinburgh is Scotland's second most populous city and the seventh most populous in the United Kingdom. The 2016 official population estimates are 464,990 for the city of Edinburgh. It is recognised as the capital of Scotland since at least the 15th century. Edinburgh is home to the Scottish Parliament and the seat of the monarchy in Scotland. Historically part of Midlothian, the city has long been a centre of education, particularly in the fields of medicine, Scots law, literature, the sciences and engineering. It is the largest financial centre in the UK after London. The city's historical and cultural attractions have made it the United Kingdom's second most popular tourist destination after London, attracting over one million overseas visitors each year.

The city is the annual venue of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland. It is home to national institutions such as the National Museum of Scotland, the National Library of Scotland and the Scottish National Gallery. The University of Edinburgh, founded in 1582 and now one of four in the city, was placed 17th in the QS World University Rankings in 2013 and 2014. The city is also famous for the Edinburgh International Festival and the Fringe, the latter being the world's largest annual international arts festival. Historic sites in Edinburgh include Edinburgh Castle, Holyrood Palace, the churches of St. Giles, Greyfriars and the Canongate, and the extensive Georgian New Town, built in the 18th century. Edinburgh's Old Town and New Town together are listed as a UNESCO World Heritage Site, which has been managed by Edinburgh World Heritage since 1999.
