Invitation

Welcome to Philadelphia, the City of science, history and medical Significance, and Experience the science of Wound care illuminated as never before. Euroscicon is proud to host the 6th Edition on Advance in Wound Care Management and Research, February 21-22, 2019 in Philadelphia, USA. This year's theme is "Modernization and Innovations in Wound Care Management and Research". Wound care 2019 will provide an unprecedented opportunity for Wound care specialists, Dermatologists of all stripes and colors to share their research with colleagues, and discuss and debate the latest advances in the field. We invite Wound care specialists, Dermatologists and researchers, and scientists in related disciplines to come together and inform each other in an environment conductive to education and interaction. Seasoned scientists, young researchers, mid-career professionals and just starting out are all welcome.

With a broad array of keynote presentations, panel discussions, workshops and poster sessions, the Wound Care and Dermatology conference is the perfect venue not only to dive into your particular Wound Care interests but also to expand the scope of your knowledge. 16 tracks are devoted to subjects such as cosmetic dermatology, stem cell therapy, critical care, nursing, emergency medicine, skin infections, diabetic foot ulcers, and many more complications.

The Organizing Committee has done its best to set up a framework that we think will allow for a creative interplay of ideas. All we need now to convert the extensive program on paper to an active and vibrant wound care and dermatology forum in person is your active participation.

About Destination Philadelphia

Once the original capital of America, Philadelphia has a history enriched with culture, history and symbolism. The city is a melting pot of races, traditions and immigrant cultures and also possesses amenities that only the city's own heritage can provide. It is the home to the Liberty Bell and the Declaration of Independence, both tributes to the city's revolution.

Widely known as Philly, but formerly known as the City of Philadelphia, it is the largest city in the state of Pennsylvania. It is also called the City of Brotherly Love '. It holds the following statistics; it is the sixth most populous city in the US, the fifth largest city area by population in the US, the US's fourth largest consumer media market and ranks 49th as the most populous city in the world. There are nearly 1.5 million people in the city alone.

If you would like to visit either for business or holidays, there is a huge variety of holiday accommodation to choose from and compare with from leading five star hotels to budget motels. Spoil yourself in the exciting range of restaurants and visit attractions to get a real classic feel of the place. Pennsylvania is a great place to start a business; it's one of the most business friendly states in the US. It offers easy access to capital, low tax rate, and numerous colleges and universities so access to top quality brain power is easy.

Philadelphia is sure to satisfy a variety of vacation desires. While there are no cruises here, if you could blend the most unique attractions and activities with some of the most common, you would have a place that was new to visit with a familiar feel. That is what Philadelphia has to offer. While you are here, enjoy shopping, golf, spectator sports, fine dining, museums, great activities and so much more.
