Invitation

Meetings International proudly announces the International Conference on Addiction Research & Therapy scheduled during August 13-14, 2018 in San Diego, USA. The conference emphasizes the theme "Emerging Trends in Addiction Research".

Meetings International provides an international dais for scientists and Neuro Science professionals to Exchange Ideas, Knowledge and Networking at its 100+ International Conferences. Addiction research and therapy generally involves interdisciplinary action so that it is possible to suggest acceptable therapeutically solutions. It is important to estimate the extent of the problem globally and in different geographical regions. Addiction should not be viewed as an indulgence but recognized as the disease it is. Thus, priorities are given for the addiction research and therapy so that it is possible to suggest acceptable therapeutically solutions.

Sincerely,
Operating Committee

Explore San Diego

San Diego County positions as the eighth biggest city in the United States of America situated in southwestern California, nearby the shoreline of Pacific Ocean. San Diego shares around 80 miles of outskirt with Mexico. The San Ysidro port of passage, near Tijuana City, is known to be the busiest fringe crossing on the planet, obliging roughly 40 million lawful intersections every year. Both these urban areas are geologically situated on real medication trafficking courses that bring illicit medications from South America into the United States. Specifically, San Diego is a noteworthy transshipment point for the two methamphetamines and Maryjane. Every year the different bodies observing, annihilating and taking action against the manhandle of medications figure their particular information which gives knowledge into the patterns of orchestrated medications being delivered, trafficked and sold.
