ABOUT SINGAPORE

Singapore, the island city state in Southeast Asia is also referred as the green city for its tree lined street and effort for greening. Singapore prides itself on being a multi-racial country, and has a diverse culture along with four official languages. It has a tropical rain forest climate with no distinctive season. The temperature does not vary a lot throughout the year and it has high humidity and abundant rainfall. Singapore has a highly developed market economy and known for its innovative, dynamic as well as competitive market area. Tourism forms a large part of economy for Singapore and the country promotes itself as a medical tourism hub. Singapore has one of the most cost-efficient public transport networks in the world which covers a range of transport modes such as bus, rail, and taxi, e-scooters. Rated as one of the best in the world, Singapore Changi Airport hosts a web of over 100 airlines connecting Singapore to around 300 cities in 70 countries.

Some of its university are among the top 20 universities in the world. Despite its lesser size; Singapore has a diversity of languages, religions, and cultures. The diversity of cuisine in the country is touted as a reason to visit the country. Its diversity makes it an ideal venue to host Anthropology 2019.
