Explore Rome

Rome is the capital city of Italy. It is also the country's largest and most populated commune and fourth-most populous city in the European Union.

Rome is a historical powerhouse with wonderful palaces, millennium-old churches, grand romantic ruins, opulent monuments and museums such as the Vatican Museums and the Colosseum, ornate statues and graceful fountains.

Rome enjoys a Mediterranean climate. Rome's average temperature in June is around 81° F 20°C, and gradually reaches up to 23°C-24°C as the month progresses.
